and Leaders in Every Walk of Life
to Give Him Their Views on What Kind of Peace American People Want—Starts South on Vacation.
By Telegraph to The Freeman.
En route with President-elect Harding, Nov. 6.—Warren G. Harding, president-elect of the United States, is off today on the last vacation he will have before he turns his attention to the work of bringing this nation back to a peace basis. With the campaign worries bobbing him, President-elect Warren G. Harding left his home in Marion early today for a vacation in Texas and Panama. He will seek complete rest, returning to Marion to resume his efforts to bring about a peace that will be acceptable to the entire United States.

On the eve of his vacation trip, Senator Harding made formal announcement of seeking a final conferences which he will hold upon his return to Marion, which will be used as the basis for action when he takes office, in bringing about peace. The senator let it be known that these conferences will be wholly non-partisan and that no party will be opinion will be sought upon the question of a peace treaty. He will seek to determine upon what basis the people of the United States can completely agree with regard to peace, a fraternity of nations, and the future foreign relations of the nation.

While no list of those who have been invited to participate in these conferences have been made public, it is known that members of all parties and leaders in every walk of life and of every school of diplomatic thought will be invited to come to Marion to discuss the question of peace and foreign relations, in order that the president-elect may sift out the various views and determine what the people want.

It was made very plain at the Harding headquarters that the senator intends to conduct these conferences without "unseemly participation" and in a manner which will bring no offense to the present administration.

Senator Harding's vacation will be devoted entirely to vacation purposes. He made this emphatic today and has put at rest all rumors that he intends to choose his cabinet while in Texas by the issuance of a statement from his headquarters that no consideration will be given to a cabinet during this "transition period."

The Harding special is due to arrive in St. Louis tonight, in San Antonio, Texas, Sunday night, and Brownsville, Texas, on Monday morning, whence the party will proceed by automobile to Point Isabel.

HIGH SCHOOL
NEWS OF WEEK

Monday morning the Senior class held a straw vote in the high school to see who the students favored for the office of chief executive of the United States. Naturally, Senator Warren G. Harding won out by about two hundred votes. It was shown that forty-one favored Debs while one voted for Robert J. Service and two for Bernard Feeney.

"Al" Smith won out by a small majority for the governorship. There were a few other scattered votes.

Monday evening the Senior class gave a dance in the gymnasium. It was the opening dance of the season and a good-sized crowd of students and alumni was on hand to enjoy a little light fantastic. Bott's well-known orchestra furnished all the latest dance music which helped to make the evening most enjoyable for the dancers. The gymnasium was artistically decorated for the occasion with streamers of orange and black paper and presented a beautiful sight. From the moment that the music started until it stopped at eleven-thirty, those who were gathered in the gym had one continuous good time.

Thursday afternoon there was a Senior class meeting at which there were plans made for the sale of the tickets for the musical concert to be given in the High School Auditorium on Monday evening, November 22, at 8:15 o'clock. The Seniors feel highly elated at the success in securing the New York Chamber Music Society to furnish the concert on that evening. Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any member of the Senior class.

Many of the members of this wonderful orchestra are well-known by Kingstonians as they spend their summers at Woodstock. While at Woodstock, they take part in many of the concerts at the Maverick.

Last Friday evening, October 29, the Prisma girls entertained the Freshman girls at a Halloween party in the gymnasium. About one hundred and fifty girls were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all. The gymnasium was prettily decorated for the affair with orange and black paper, Japanese lanterns, pumpkins and other decorations.

There was a fortune teller and other interesting people present to keep things lively. There were peanut hunts, dancing, and after enjoying some dancing, there were real refreshments.

The evening was a most happy one for all who were there. Miss Nancy Judkins had charge of the arrangements of the evening's fun. The Freshman girls were fully convinced at the end of the evening's fun that the Senior girls know how to entertain.

MALDEN REVIVAL.

Evangelist Hands Out Hot Talk To Backsliders And Other Sinners.

A crowded church, including large delegations from Quarryville, Saugerties, Cementon and West Camp, greeted the Rev. LeRoy Muir and R. E. Kaufman, who are conducting Evangelistic services at the Malden M. E. Church, Thursday night. Mr. Kaufman conducted a stirring service of song, including those campaign favorites, "Twas a glad day when Jesus found me," and "He Careth For Me." A booster chorus of 48 boys and girls occupied the front seats and added enthusiasm to the meeting. The Quarryville Boosters and John Connor, sang special numbers. Mrs. C. C. Cody accompanied Mr. Kaufman at the piano. In the special song message, "When you know Jesus, too," Evangelist Muir preached a great message in the power of the spirit on "Stones." Sometimes rocks stand in the way of progress. The flocks could not be watered till the stone was rolled from the well's mouth. Many people never remove the stone. What stone in your life keeps you from having power with God? God is a holy God. We must humble ourselves. I don't believe in the costumes that some women wear today. If some of you would read the Methodist discipline you'd change your costume before appearing on the street again. We're here with the old, old gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Spirit of God will work when we give God his place. A lot of people don't believe in excitement. Neither does the devil! Disbelief in the word of God has crept in today. "The scripture cannot be broken." It's divinely inspired. Preach, Jesus as a Savior! Higher critics! I call them higher crickets. People are monkeying with religion. Sin is birth! Death is rottenness and Satan is an arch fiend! Jesus Christ will never play second fiddle to your sin! If he isn't God of all, he isn't God at all! Are you free, are you rich with God? A lot of church members put their business and pleasure ahead of God. You don't have to change the film with Jesus. He's always as fresh as the morning. A lot of you are jangling yourselves into the pit of hell. What you need is a new vision of Jesus. Come back to him. I'd rather have my boys and girls in a humble like a hippopotamus than have them play the awful piece of the argument of sinful passions through delectable to dance. A church member who lives more like the devil than like God is no light in the church. Come in or get out! A knock is now being down for hell. God wants workers. Come on. Come on. Jesus wants you in the fray!

A large delegation from Fort Union came 24 miles to support the service, presenting a hearty welcome from their excited friends and adding much enthusiasm to the meeting.

MOVING DAY IS ANY OLD DAY

"People seem to be moving all the time, these days," said the Old Timer to a reporter of The Freeman, as he pointed to an auto moving van loaded with furniture passing through Wall street yesterday. "I remember, well when moving time in Kingston was May 1st, but a funny thing was that moving time down in Hudson was April 1st. The reason for the difference was that the old Delaware & Hudson canal used to open up for the season after the winter about April 1st, and the people moved on April 1st down there so as to be settled by the time the men folks got busy boating. There were no regular truckmen thirty or forty years ago, as there are now, and the men who owned lively stables did the moving, every liverman having a big four or six seat wagon and would take the seats out and load up the wagon with furniture. Ed Winter was the only regular local expressman thirty years ago and his risks were engaged for May 1st weeks ahead, as were the rigs of the livermen. The charge was from three to five dollars a load, and two dollars extra if the party moving had a piano.

"There was no jumping the rent by the landlord at any old time as I understand they do now. The understanding was that when a person rented a house at a stated rent on May 1st or April 1st, and moved in on that date he kept the house until the following May 1st or April 1st. No lease was signed. There was no profiteering in rents then, there was honor between landlord and tenant. You could often hear people in days back say, 'I've lived in this house twenty years, or thirty years,' but, according to what I hear, it is getting so lately that a person who does not own his own house is lucky if he can say that he has lived in the same house two years. In the old days the tenant who paid his rent and who had verbally agreed to rent by the year did not have to move out until the year was up and could not be put out, nor made to pay any increase in rent, unless a jury decided that his word was no good. Lawyers tell me that the same law is still good, and that is so. I guess some of these people who move get scared away or else don't pay the rent."

"Speaking of moving," continued the Old Timer, "can you tell me where a fellow can go right now and hire a team and carriage or a horse and buggy to take his girl out riding?" Off hand the reporter could not answer the question, but said he would have to consult the city directory to find out who the liverymen in the city were.

John Burroughs expects to leave about November 20 for California where he will be the guest of friends for the winter.

The West Park Neighborhood Association is planning to give a Thanksgiving dance at the West Park school house on Wednesday, November 24. Music will be furnished by a four piece orchestra from Kingston.

KINGSTON, N. Y., NOV. 6, 1920.

Among the signs that the times have changed, not the least was Bryan's silence throughout the Presidential campaign.

Kipling, who held that the female of the species is dearer than the male, will be interested in the report that the chief executioner at Moscow
is "a beautiful girl."

Bernadotto Croce, the distinguished Italian educator, pointedly suggests that, instead of spending 2-000,000 lire to commemorate the 600th birthday of Dante, his countrymen celebrate by reading Dante's neglected works.

The London Times having pointedly informed the Prince of Wales that he ought to get married, the young man is now faced with the problem of finding a pleasing mate within the narrow limits of the few royal families still able to boast a reigning king.

Mr. Cox's friends have not once called attention to the fact that he bears the name of James Monroe,
the father of the Monroe doctrine.
Perhaps they thought there was less than nothing to be gained by it in these days of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll.

Although the field of women's activities has no doubt been permanently extended, many women both in this country and in England are reported to be retiring from the "men's jobs" they held during the war, their object being to enter more congenial occupations.

The report that some Nebraska farmers will burn corn instead of coal this winter is accompanied by the explanatory statement that a ton of bituminous delivered to a farm on the Platte will cost as much as a ton of new corn in the crib. Moreover, corn in plentiful and coal is scarce in Nebraska.

The recent decision of the Civil Service Commission to bar from appointment as detectives men over forty-five years of age has been criticized on the ground that quick head
work rather than nimble leg-work is the need in chasing crooks. This is true, but it is also true that the older a man is the more readily he falls asleep when he sits down to think things over.

"Labor" is still luxuriating in silk shirts and perhaps still takes pride in paying $16 or $18 for them, but the demand for this vanity is now likely to slow up, for the word has gone forth that the really well-dressed man wouldn't be caught dead in one.
The silk shirt having become the badge of the proletariat, the well-dressed man who appears in what is known as "society" is unwilling to touch one with a ten-foot pole.
So passes—or begins certainly to pass—the workingman's aspiring silk shirt.

SYLVIA TAUGHT A LESSON.

It is evident that the apostles of revolution in England are discouraged, and they have reason to be. The coal strike did not bring on a general strike, as was hoped, and the coal strike itself has been settled by agreements satisfactory to the miners but not at all satisfactory to the breeders of revolution who are in communication with and advised by the Bolsheviks of Russia. Sylvia Pankhurst's intercepted letter to her "dear comrades," London, shows this discouragement.
British labor is interested in its own immediate objects and does not take much stock in international Bolshew-ist movements. Sylvia Pankhurst warns Lenin not to be too sanguine as the forces tending toward revolution in England "are not formidable yet."

Sylvia is fortunate to live in England. For in any other country—the United States not ex-ceptioned—she would probably go to jail now that she is known to be working with foreigners who plan
the destruction of the government of her country. Her letter to Lenin shows that she is appreciative even in England, but she makes it clear that if she does go to jail she will have the good sense not to hunger-strike. In the old militant suffragette days the government yielded when a fair prisoner tried to starve herself, but now it lets the hunger-striker die if he insists. "That weapon is destroyed now," Sylvia regretfully informs Lenin. She thought she could help overturn the British government with the aid of the Russian Bolsheviks, and, if arrested that a hunger-strike would procure her release as it caused the release of her mother before her. But what has happened of late in Britain prison has taught her a lesson—and a wholesome lesson it is for such as Sylvia.

What a Cold Garage Does to Your Car.

BETWEEN trips let your car stand in a WASCO-Heated Garage—kept at constant temperature by the WASCO Automatic Regulator. The warm air envelopes the car—reaches every nook and corner—melts off the snow and ice—thaws the frost out of the varnish—warms all the metal parts—keeps oil and grease in working condition, preventing scoured cylinders and burned out bearings. There is no chance of frozen radiator, cracked water jacket or broken water pump. Storage batteries work at a disadvantage when cold—they will not take a full charge, and consequently suffer greatly from overwork. They also are much more likely to become ruined by freezing. With the garage warmed, you enjoy taking the same care of the lubrication and adjustment of the car as you do in the summer time. And your car starts easily. The self-regulating WASCO Hot Water Heating System requires attention only once a day. Any handy man can set it up—no expensive steam-fitter required. Costs less than street car fare for fuel. WASCO is also used for heating offices, stores, cottages, etc.

TRIED TO VOTE FOR HUSBAND

Over 25 election cases came before Supreme Court Justice Joseph Morchauser in Poughkeepsie on Tuesday, but as most of them were failures on the part of the persons to see that their names were properly placed on the register he could not assist them in any way. One of the most novel cases was an application by a woman of the Seventh ward to be granted a vote for husband, who was confined to his home by illness. The woman stated her husband had been in a hospital where he had undergone an operation and returned home but he was unable to leave the house. She had gone to the polls and voted, but as her husband could not go she thought she would be able to do it for him. She had prepared a signed statement which had been properly executed by the man and went first to the election officials of the Third district of the Seventh ward and stated her case to them. They at once referred her to Justice Morchauser and they stated they had never heard of a case of the kind before. The only consolation the court could extend her was to refer her back to the workers in that ward and they would provide an automobile to take the man to the polls, but there was no such thing as voting by proxy at an election.

WEST PARK'S HALLOWE'EN

Entertainment at School House Much Enjoyed.

The Halloween entertainment given by the West Park Neighborhood Association at the school house Saturday night was a wonderful success. The large and enthusiastic audience applauded every number heartily and pronounced it the best ever given in the school house. Much credit is due to every one who took part and especially to those who had charge of the preliminary work involved in such an undertaking. The chairman of the entertainment, Mrs. R. W. Spencer, and her skillful assistants, Miss Alice Redmond and Miss Mabel Decker, have been working for weeks drilling the children for their parts, which was the special feature of the whole entertainment. The girls' drill in their pretty bright costumes was perfect. The fairy scene, the boys with their lanterns, the stage lighted with Jack O'Lanterns, with pumpkins and corn stalks for a background made a very mysterious but beautiful effect. Miss Florence Green took the part of Fairy Queen and was indeed very queen-like, wearing a special costume for the occasion. At a wave of her magic wand she would bring forth cherubs from the pumpkins and large black cats from the corn stalks, but the witch with her quaint costume was the climax of the evening with her song, "Little Orphan Annie," from the poem of James Whitcomb Riley. This part was taken by Mrs. R. W. Spencer in a most creditable manner. Throughout the evening the orchestra and others furnished delightful music, making up a very pleasant and profitable Halloween entertainment.

WANT WOMEN'S SMOKING ROOM

And Women Advocates of Equality Want Lone Woman in New Congress to Help Run House Restaurant and Win Votes With Choice Viands.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Nov. 6.—As one of her first official acts, Miss Alice Robertson, elected to congress from Oklahoma, will be asked to demand a smoking room in the capitol for lady lobbyists, according to Mrs. Dorothy Earle of Detroit, Mich., a young woman of social prominence here, who was active in the suffrage movement.

Mrs. Earle announced today that a deputation of women will call on her arrival in Washington to "talk it over."

She also declared that the women will agitate to have Miss Robertson appointed chairman of the house sub-committee, which has charge of the house restaurant.

The congress woman-elect is said to have won the men's support in her campaign by the delectable food she served in her restaurant in Muskogee, and Mrs. Earle pointed out today "the wonderful opportunity" she would have as head of the house lunch room to influence antagonistic congressmen "through their stomachs" to vote for legislation asked by the women.

Mrs. Earle was lunching with Miss Mary Winsor of Havertford, Pa., in a capitol restaurant last winter when the latter insisted upon smoking two cigarettes and nearly caused a riot. Several suffragists made indignant protests to Senator Moses, head of the senate sub-committee.

"The senator declared that there is smoking discrimination against the women," said Mrs. Earle, "but there is and there will be until a woman is placed in charge."

She added that "smoking for women" may be only a small issue compared to others but if the women continued to be denied equality in the little things they can never hope to achieve "full freedom."

A veritable army of women lobbyists will descend upon the new congress, she pointed out today.

"Prayer comforts should be provided for them in the capitol," she said. "It would be so soothing to have a haven such as a smoking room to go to after the nervous strain of talking to congressmen."

Denial at the headquarters of the National Women's Party that the organization has any connection with Mrs. Earle's plans disclosed that under an order issued by Alice Paul, smoking by women actively connected with the party here is prohibited. Although an extreme feminist in her views, Miss Paul, it was stated, thinks indulgence in the little weed by women "abominable." Some of the young suffragists confided that it requires more stoicism to bear an under the order than to hunger strike.

ARTHUR GRIFFITH FLAYS BRITISH

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Dublin, Nov. 6.—Despite the announcement by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, that stern punishment is being administered to stop reprisal attacks by the auxiliary police, the "black and tans," Arthur Griffith, Sinn Fein member of parliament, and acting president of the Irish republic, today charged the British government with full responsibilities for the "atrocities" that have followed the funeral of Terence Mac Swiney. Griffith accused the police and soldiers of "frightfulness" that surpassed the outrages of the Germans in Belgium during the war. His statement in full follows.

"The English parliament, by refusing an inquiry into the atrocities its government forces are committing in Ireland, convicts the British government of instigating and directing them.

"The attempt of the English government's spokesman to pretend that these atrocities are reprisals can deceive no one who has been in Ireland. The atrocities now being perpetrated in Ireland are part of a calculated plan made by the English ministry some time ago in the vain hope of breaking the spirit and the will of the Irish nation.

"The constitutional expression of the will of the Irish nation, registered at the general election of 1918 was met by arbitrary decree from the English government declaring the duly elected representatives of Ireland an illegal body and banning the national and political organizations which three-fourths of the people of Ireland supported.

"A policy of repression based upon nocturnal raids, arrests and imprisonments was pursued towards the people's representatives and the people themselves. The restraint which this policy was endured as time passed, repression became more brutal. It was calculated and provocative. The press that exposed and condemned the evil policy was suppressed or threatened with suppression. Public meeting was interdicted and all the organic means by which a nation expresses itself were sought to be stifled.

"Political spies, whose business it was to denounce men for their opinions and agents provocateurs, whose work it was to instigate outrage, were scattered through the country. Consequences that inevitably flowed from the effort to treat the lawfully registered vote of the people as a crime, and the electors and their representatives as criminals, were in turn used as an excuse before the world for sacking Irish towns and villages, the destruction of Irish factories, creameries and business houses, the burning of Irish homes, homesteads and harvests and the murder of Irish citizens until today, throughout the major part of Ireland a system of terror, surpassing

RING CHAMPIONS SIGN TO FIGHT

Carpenter Will Meet Dempsey Next Summer, Probably July 4—Special Arena and $5 to $50 Admission.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 6.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion pugilist, and Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, and light heavyweight champion of the world, signed an agreement yesterday afternoon, by the terms of which they are bound to meet in the ring between March 1, 1921, and July 4 of the same year in a contest of not more than fifteen rounds nor less than ten rounds.

The promoters, Charles B. Cochran of London, England, and William A. Brady and Tex Rickard of New York bind themselves to pay $300,000 to Jack Dempsey and $200,000 to Georges Carpentier for their services in the ring, and the triumvirate also agree to name the time and place for the bout sixty days in advance of the contest.

The promoters thus have the three principal holidays—St. Patrick's Day, Memorial Day and July 4—to choose from, and are restricted in the matter of location to the United States, Mexico, Cuba or Canada.

Limiting the rounds to a maximum of fifteen or a minimum of ten is proof positive that the promoters plan to stage the contest in some state where boxing is legalized, with the chances largely favoring New York.

As the agreement had been legally drawn and all its terms endorsed previous to the meeting there was no debate. The actual ceremony therefore consisted in the promoters, boxers and managers signing their names to the contract. This did not occupy more than half an hour, and was not half so exciting as many a conference to settle a real estate deal. The papers were signed in the ball room of the Hotel Claridge.

It was observed that Carpentier handles a pen with more facility than Dempsey, the American champion employing a right hook in signing his name while the Frenchman performed the operation by feinting gracefully with his left and sending the right over with accuracy and speed.

GAMES PLAYED IN BOWLING LEAGUE

In the opening games of Friday night's matches in the Mercantile Bowling League at the Y. M. C. A., the Fuller Shirt Company were victors over the Armour Company while the Ulster County National Bank team was downing the Gas and Electric Company. In the first game of the league, Dick Marchant bowled a nice consistent score of 472 for the three games.

In the last games of the evening, the F. B. Matthews team had an easy time in smearing the shirts of the Jacobson team. Their unexpected fall for three games was a sad feature of the evening. The Jacobson men have been bowling consistently for several weeks and their reversal of form was unexpected. Murray of that team rolled a nice game. In the railroaders' contest the West Shore bumped the O. & W. for three games. Rogers featuring for the Ontario team and Ballard for the River Division men. A new high score for individual score was established by Cross of the Armour team of 195.

No other records were approached, however. Frank Duflon efficiently umpired the games.
